

TOP Coming Back Together engagement (credit: Aram Boghosian) BOTTOM In process view

project Coming Back Together: an intimate gathering space year 2022
 client Cape Ann Museum Green location Cape Ann Museum Green, Willowood Gardens partners Sika Foyer type Interactive sculpture size (9) 6-10ft high tree limbs in a 10ft diameter circle roots Cross Pollination, Hula Shades

Coming Back Together: an intimate gathering space is a colorful garden folly made up of tenderly wrapped tree stumps, limbs, and abstract foliage, that honors the artistry and embodied life values of Doris Prouty's quilts into a space for whimsy, storytelling, and friends.

After its life on the Cape Ann Museum Green, the installation was gifted to AgriCulture: a new growing and gathering space down the road at Willowood Gardens, a Gloucester Housing Authority community.

LEFT Process Images
BOTTOM Engagement (credit: Aram Boghosian)

